Dedicated To The Class Of 82

Tim Willis - President

One August day in 1978, a group of Young People sang, and expressed their ideas to a hungry and anxious Freshman Class. The words seemed to flow, and the meaning evaporated into thin air; but maybe not, only seconds later, a stillness came upon the Church. The meaning became clear, and the mystery began to unfold only to become more and more clear each second, minute, hour, year Class. Here at Johnson C. Smith University, We Have, We Will continue to Make It Together"

NEW SENSATIONS

Who Said Cleaning Up Isn't Fun.

"Campus Clean-Up Day" was a total success. Students showed their school spirit and enthusiasm for the project. The Marching Golden Bulls were on hand to liven up things as well as helpful people from the community.

Special Orders Don't Upset Us!

The Union Program Board started the year off with a bang. Their cookout on the Block was a project well worth their effort. Hungry students turned out in record numbers and found relief in Ms. Crisp's cooking.

The Few The Proud . . .

September 28, 1981 was the first Black College Day in the State of North Carolina. That also marked the Act-1 dramatization of the "Black experience in America". This event was staged on the streets and lawns of the State Capitol in Raleigh, N.C. where black college actors from across the state gathered to share their knowledge on "Saving the Black Colleges". Many students from Johnson C. Smith attended the convention. Over 50% of the blacks emerge from the colleges and universities each year with degrees in doctoring, civil leadership and business. We the black race, must not retire. We must continue to strive for an education and become a positive factor to our race. There are not many black colleges, therefore, we must support these symbols of equality and opportunity. It is our obligation to save the few, and proud, black colleges.

"A Special Tribute To A Wonderful Lady"

Ms. Joyce Crisp, Union Director

Ms. Joyce Crisp, Union Program Director, has been at Johnson C. Smith since 1965. She has served for the past 16 years seemly enjoying each and everyday. Ms. Crisp is always looking for new and exciting events for the students to have for themselves as well as the community. Because she is a mother (Nancy), she understands and helps us all along. We, the Yearbook Staff, Join the Entire Student Body In Saying Thank You For Being, Little Ms. Crisp. We Love You . . . And is there any way We can get the Union Main Lounge Today? I forgot to mention but we've scheduled pictures up there. We can, great!! Thanks Ms. Crisp.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Spring 1982

TO: The University Family

FROM: Wilbert Greenfield, President

GREETINGS...

I am pleased and proud to extend greetings and best wishes to all of you -- members of the staff of this Annual, officers of the Student Government Association, Student Trustees, the entire student body, administrators, faculty and staff -- through the medium of the 1981-1982 edition of THE BULL.

Now in its one hundred fifteenth year of service, Johnson C. Smith University remains dedicated to its commitment to providing the best possible environment for teaching and learning for our students. I have noted with pride the increased maturity and sense of purpose developed in our student body as you move about our campus, serving on administrative committees, student governance and as Trustees of the University. I congratulate you on these achievements and the responsible manner which you have exhibited in so doing.

Finally, I congratulate and thank the editorial staff and advisors of this pictorial for your magnificent effort in depicting the activities and personages of the University through the pages of this Annual. May it serve as a cherished reminder of your years spent here as part of the Johnson C. Smith University Family.

Sincerely,

Wilbert Greenfield

Class of 1982

My Fellow Seniors,

As we near the end of our matriculation here at Johnson C. Smith University, we can rejoice at overcoming many of the trials and tribulations of college life. When we started out on our journey August 20, 1978 our family number 497, now after four years our family has dwindled down to 199. Yes, some of us have succumbed, but some of us have survived. For those of us who have presevered the rewards have been plentiful. If to you the Graduating Class of 1982, I many leave but one thought, let it be this;

> Two roads diverge in a woods and I took the one less traveled by and that has made all the difference.

Sincerely,
O. Timothy Willis
President

Who's Who Among American

In times like these, I should think people would strive to get as much education as possible. Education is something you will always want and need. It has been said that Education without Salvation is Damnation, this is true, but remember that God helps those who help themselves.

Arthur L. Wilson

If it had not been for the love, guidance, and support of my family I would not be who I am today. I have enjoyed my years here at Johnson C. Smith University because it has taught me many things but, mostly that wisdom keeps you safe and that it is the advantage of knowledge.

Melody R. Donald

My four years here at Johnson C. Smith University have been very fruitful. The trials and tribulations that I met on the way has made me a much stronger person. I found my stay here challenging and very educational. Because education plays a very important part in our daily lives, and we must prepare to meet these daily Challenges head on. Thank You Johnson C. Smith University for giving me the opportunity to enhance my knowledge from all levels, and I thank God for giving me the drive that I need to keep striding.

Willie Bodrick

"Education is the Key to Success". Like most of us I too owe my success to my dear mother and family, who have given me the courage to press onward to reach higher heights. I have developed spiritually, intellectually, and socially at Johnson C. Smith University. I will always be greatful to the many friends and instructors who helped keep me on the right road. To the Smith Family keep the faith in God, and be Happy.

Rhonda D. Bridges

Johnson C. Smith is our home, a home of knowledge and maturity. In order for our home to continue to grow we must give of ourselves the enthusiasm, creativity, and hope that will allow it to flourish forever.

Stephanie M. McLeod

Colleges And Universities

Success is meaningless unless you have someone to share it with. Being listed among Who's Who is truly an honor and is the result of a motivation I acquired as a child along with continuous encouragement. Therefore, I must dedicate my accomplishments to my mother and grandmother who have encouraged me throughout the years, also to my Smith family and friends, but most of all to Jesus Christ who made it all possible. Thank you, J. C. S. U. for three very challenging and rewarding years.

Odyssey Leach

There are many stars from which to choose. One can either choose that bestowed upon him or given to him, but I prefer reaching for the highest one that can't be given but earned through the diligent and creative minds that God has given us. Therefore, when you decide to choose, the higher you reach the more fruits you'll acquire. Thanks mom for directing me to the highest star.

Vivian Byrd

In any game there's always a loser and there's always a winner. I learned a long time ago, he who wins is the one who wanted it the most. If the mind can conceive, the body can achieve. But when the body has achieved great success, remain forever humble, for the ones you met going up the ladder, you will meet coming down. Thank you mom! For all of those many lessons in life!

Artis L. Winston

Who's Who isn't a reward for glamour or self-satisfaction, it is one attained through hard work and determination. I would like to thank J. C. Smith for giving me my share of hard work and my loving mother who taught me the ground work for determination.

Rosalyn Webb

Attaining goals is the most difficult task that one will encounter in life. There are no shortcuts nor handouts. Although every step taken won't be successful, it should be remembered that through steadfast, zealous, and sincere endeavor all things can be attained.

Gov. Hunt Visits JCSU

When I spoke with President Greenfield about coming to Johnson C. Smith so very close to your dinner hour, he requested that I do three things to keep peace in the family: stand up and be recognized, speak up and be heard, and sit down and be appreciated.

I plan to do just that.

You honor me with this opportunity to address the 1985 class of Johnson C. Smith. I wanted to be with you today as you start your college career, because I have a dream for North Carolina, and I want you to be my partners.

During the 114 years of this university's existence, it has given so much for so long, to so many, for so little.

This university has a legacy of producing outstanding students, many of whom are leaders of this nation today. You walk in paths made by outstanding alumni such as: The Rt. Rev. John Hurst Adams, Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; Pettis Norman, former all-pro football player with the Dallas Cowboys and now a banker and businessman in Dallas, Texas; Eva Clayton, former assistant secretary, Department of Natural Resources and Community Development; the Rev. Bob Walton, county commissioner here in Mecklenburg, and the Honorable Richard Erwin, federal district judge, appointed by me to the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

These people made it because they believed that as Jesse Jackson says, "If you can conceive it, and believe it, you can achieve it."

Gov. Hunt

A lot of people have a lot of hopes for your success. Many of your parents are sacrificing everything to provide you this opportunity. As your Governor, I ask you not to waste this chance to achieve.

You are very fortunate to have parents and relatives who have helped you reach this height in life. Many of your friends are not as fortunate as you are and will not enter college this year, even though many of them would like to.

As I reflect on your potentials, I am reminded of the words of a great poet, James Russell Lowell, who said, "Not failure, but low aim is crime." Do not be a victim of aiming too low. I challenge you to aim high. Set your aim on becoming the president, governor, judge, superintendent, owner of businesses and farms.

It is so easy to say, "No I can't do it." But students like you will say, "I know it is tough, but I must continue and I'm not going to let anybody turn me around."

My dream for North Carolina is not just a good state, but the best state.

We've made progress in reducing our infant mortality rate. But we can do better. We've made progress in our test scores in the public schools — they're at or above the national average — but we can do better. We're working hard to stop young people from dropping out of high school — but we can do a lot better.

I want this class to be my partner as volunteers to help some child or to help your classmates who are having problems with their school work.

I want this class to be a class known for booking rather than boogying, for putting hope in their brains rather than dope in their veins, to be a partner in helping us change the fact that today in 66 out of 100 counties we do not have a black attorney.

I want you to help change the fact that in North Carolina 80 of our 100 counties do not have a black doctor.

I want you to be my partner in making sure that more than 10% of the college students are registered to vote, and that they go to the polls on election day. Because these are crucial times for making the voice of hope and progress heard in this state and this nation.

Bobby Kennedy once said, "Some people see things and wonder why — I see things and wonder why not." That's the question I hope you'll ask. And I hope you'll adopt as your goal the vision that Thomas Wolfe expressed:

"To every man his chance, to every man, regardless of his birth, his shining golden opportunity — to every man the right to live, to work, to be himself, and to become whatever thing his manhood and his vision can combine to make him — this, seeker, is the promise of America."

Julian Bond, "Exciting Event At Smith"

Julian Bond was born in Nashville, Tennessee, on January 14, 1940. While attending Morehouse College in Atlanta he became active in the civil rights movement in the South, helping found the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Bond was elected in 1965 to the Georgia House of Representatives, but was barred from taking his seat by legislators who objected to his statements on the war in Vietnam. Despite winning two special elections in 1966, he still did not take his seat until 1967 after a Supreme Court decision that the Georgia legislature had erred in refusing him his place. He eventually served four terms in the House and, in November of 1974, was elected to the State Senate, where he now serves.

Bond was co-chairperson of the Georgia Loyal National Democratic Delegation, an insurgent group, at the 1968 Democratic National Convention. The Loyal Democrats were successful in unseating the regular, hand-picked Georgia delegation. Bond was nominated for Vice President, but withdrew his name from consideration because of his age.

Julian Bond serves on the Boards of Directors of the Delta Ministry Project of the National Committee of Churches; Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Fund; Martin Luther King Jr. Center for Social Change; Center for Community Change; Highlander Research and Education Center; National Sharecroppers Fund; Southern Regional Council; New Democratic Coalition; and the Voter Education Project. He is Board Chairperson of the South Regional Council Elections Fund and President of the Southern Poverty Law Center.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

The Brothers at Johnson C. Smith University are continuing the tradition of Noble Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and all can be proud of Alpha Omicron and its accomplishments. Our heritage at J. C. S. U. is only a part of a larger panorama which goes back to the years 1905 - 1906. During those years, several black men at a predominately white university Cornell University conceived and formed this great Fraternity, Alpha Phi Alpha. The Brotherhood boast not of singular achievements, but delights in consistant maturity and intellectual growth. Excellence in all endeavors, with a special emphasis on academic achievement is perhaps the overidding orientation of Alpha men everywhere. This special effort continues to be the guiding principle of the men of Alpha Omicron Chapter.

Parade . . .

One of the most significant events during the Homecoming Week is the Parade. This event presented beautiful floats, cars, and plenty pretty girls. The 1981-82 parade was a big success, pleasing all involved and those that just came to watch.

Homecoming 81 Bulls Go Wild

The occasion of Homecoming is waited upon and worked on for many months before the actual day. Therefore the students, faculty, and friends all turn out for the festive activity. The Parade is welcomed by all giving each organization the chance to display their beautiful Queens, while local merchants and clubs join in Smith's celebration. The game is most important, this year Johnson C. Smith battled the Eagles of North Caroline Central.

Sunday Mornings are always hard to make it to church, but the Sunday after Homecoming, almost impossible. However a few people (students) came out for the traditional Homecoming service. Of course the Old Heads, Oops I mean Alumni came out in full force. I can't understand it, they can go all night and the next day too . . .

Coronation "THIS TIME"

Melody Donald, Miss J.C.S.U. 1981-82 was crowned November 6, 1981, by former Queen Gracie Pemberton. The Coronation theme, "This Time" held a special meaning for all.

"More Wine And Cheese Please"

The Wine and Cheese sip was a big splash, students and a few faculty members enjoyed the different wines and cheeses, and all feel that this activity should be held again next year.

Miss Yearbook
WANDA WILSON

MY roots as Miss Yearbook became planted early last fall with staff elections. I of course was filled with anticipation, excitement, and joy. Soon I calmed and realized that I only wanted to do everything possible to represent my organization well. Like all things, there is a beginning and an end and so has my reign. The profits from my investment have been many. In closing I want to thank the staff for their support and love.

Love peace and happiness always,
Wanda Michelle Wilson

Our Alma Mater

Completed, I don't know what I shall worry about now. Since being elected to the editorship last April, I've had a large problem filling an order for 1400 books. Unique, all color pages, and at least 4 pictures of everybody. Well I did my best as you can see we got the 1400 books, some color pages and as many of your faces as possible. Unique, indeed because it's this years' book and 1982 will never come this way again. Thank You for letting me be your editor, friend, and classmate. I hope you will enjoy this production we worked hard and hope that you will keep in mind that we're just students like yourself, mistakes will be found and some pictures not to your liking however I'm sure you will be pleased overall. Special thanks to my staff, just to mention a few Wanda, Diann, Lonnie, Dexter, Michelle, Lana, Sylvester, Walter, Angela, Beulah, Sabrina, and my favorite artist in the world REGGIE. Thanks goes to special people on the outside they helped me through all the rough spots Linda, Phyllis and James. Thanks Anthony and Sarah who taught me all I know but left just enough unknown so that I would have to do it my way. Hey that's what this book is all about. I made it because of YOU.
